New Delhi

Delhi Chief Minister Rekha Gupta will lead day-long programmes marking Prime Minister Narendra Modi's 75th birthday on September 17, beginning with a blood donation camp at Kartavya Path, officials said on Friday. Also, Union Home Minister Amit Shah will launch 15 development projects at an event at Thyagraj Stadium.

Under the Saturday morning programme Thank You Modi Ji, besides the blood donation camp, an exhibition and a Sewa Sankalp Walk will also be held, they said. The camp near India Gate aims to collect 1,000 units of blood, setting a new record. The exhibition will be based on the Modi Government's developmentrelated initiatives in Delhi.

The Union Home Minister will launch projects, including

101 Ayshman Arogya Mandir 2 (Gandhi Jayanti). Further, and five hospital blocks, Shah will launch Delhi Jal among others, on the evening Board's various projects worth of September 17. These projects ₹3,660 crore on September are part of the 75 different 30. in Okhla, officials said. The CM said in a statement development and welfare programmes, which will be that 'Sewa Pakhwada' is a launched during Sewa major step towards making the Capital a truly "Viksit Pakhwada (service fortnight) —

New Delhi

The National Students' Union of India (NSUI) on Friday released its manifesto for the Delhi University Students' Union (DUSU) polls, making key promises on rolling back fee hikes, menstrual leave for women students and safer campuses.

The key manifesto pledges include rejection of the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020, up to 12 days of menstrual leave per semester, transparent exams to prevent paper leaks, smart classrooms, improved hostels, functional counselling centres, better scholarships and transport facilities. The women's manifesto calls for sanitary vending machines, legal aid and 24×7 emergency response against harassment, gender sensitisation workshops and enhanced safety infrastructure across colleges.

The student outfit also unveiled a separate women's manifesto and fielded 23-year-old Joslyn Nandita Choudhary, a postgraduate student of Buddhist Studies, as its presidential candidate — the first woman in 17 years to be nominated for the top post by Announcing the manifesto at a press conference, NSUI national president Varun Choudhary said, "We are confident of winning 4-0. Following the path of Bahujan-Nayak Rahul Gandhi, we are determined to safeguard the academic session will be held on September 18, with counting scheduled for September 19. The ABVP's manifesto, set to be released on Saturday, is being touted as a compilation of student suggestions.

The DUSU elections for the 2025-26

In the 2024 DUSU polls, the NSU made a comeback after a seven-year hiatus, winning two key positions president and joint secretary. The ABVP secured the vice president post and retained the secretary position, maintaining its presence in the union.

Delhi traders stare at losses as goods stuck on way to Nepal

A large quantity of goods from Delhi's wholesale markets, including Old Delhi and Sadar Bazar, is currently stuck on the way to Nepal due to the ongoing unrest in the neighbouring country. Paramjit Singh Pamma, president of the Sadar Bazar Market Trades Association, said, "Sadar Bazar is one of the largest wholesale markets in Delhi, which is known for exporting a wide range of products to several countries, including Nepal." "Utensils, crockery, jewellery, toys, stationery items, tailoring materials, garments, footwear and other house-

In an effort to increase the carrying capacity of the Yamuna River, the Delhi Government is planning to approach the National Green Tribunal (NGT) to allow dredging of the river in the national Capital.

Dredging is an exercise usually carried out in water bodies to excavate underwater silt and waste accumulated over the years which enhances the storage of water in the river. Recently, during the high level of the river, several areas near to the riverbank faced the issue of urban flooding, mainly because of the reduced carrying capacity of regulator drains. "Currently dredging work of the river is not allowed, but we will approach the NGT for approval, after which a further detailed project report will be prepared, this will increase the carrying capacity of the river," sources said. According to estimates,

Here, the DJB has constructed one of the biggest water treatment plants in the city, having an average water production capacity of 138 MGD.

After the dredging process, the river would be able to store water at double its current capacity which would reduce problems of overflowing drains and backflow of river water into the city, according to the plan.

Goel blames dog feeders, NGOs' for stray dog menace

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE New Delhi

Former Union Minister and President of Lok Abhiyan, Vijay Goel alleged that a "nexus of dog feeders, NGOs, and vested interests" is responsible for the growing menace of stray dogs in India. Addressing a press conference on Friday at the Noida Media Centre, Goel, who has been running a nationwide campaign against dog bites, claimed a few dog feeders have "virtually held the entire country hostage" over the issue.

Federation of RWAs of Noida and Greater Noida to address the problem in the NCR. He pointed out that thousands of dog bite cases are reported daily across Delhi, Noida, Ghaziabad, Faridabad and Gurgaon, yet the issue is not being taken seriously by State Governments. He highlighted the conflict within the bench ordering dogs to be Goel's remarks came after sent to shelters, while a he was invited by the three-judge bench directs their release.

Presenting stark statistics, Goel stated that India has over 120 million stray dogs the highest in the world—and consequently, the highest number of dog bites and rabies cases. He said women, children and the elderly are the worst affected. He cited international Supreme Court's own examples like the USA. approach, with a two-judge Singapore and European countries where public feeding of stray dogs is illegal and the streets are free of them, questioning why PETA advocates for stray dogs in India but not in its own country.

The former minister also raised serious concerns about the sterilisation and vaccination drives, claiming
